

What I Have, I Give You

Acts 3:1-10

Central Idea: The risen Jesus heals the broken and makes them living witnesses to His power.

I. Jesus meets the broken through His faithful people (vv. 1–5)

II. Jesus makes the broken whole (vv. 6–8)

III. Jesus mobilizes the healed as witnesses (vv. 8–10)

QUIDNESSETT CHURCH

“Pleasing God, Making Disciples of Jesus Christ”

Welcome. We gather as people who need grace, to worship the God who gives it freely.

HELPING OTHERS

Each year we help the Providence Rescue Mission provide Thanksgiving food baskets to people in need. Next Sunday we will be collecting dessert items such as pie crust, pie filling, and cake mixes. Non-perishable food donations may be placed in the basket in the coatroom.

We are collecting items to fill shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. Any donations of school supplies, hygiene items, and small toys can be placed in the box in the coat room, or you can pack your own box. For more details, go to <https://samaritanspurse.org/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child>.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Awana needs two helpers to serve each week: a helper in Sparks (grades K-2) and a games leader. We are also looking for someone to help as needed in the preschool group. See Brian Benson.

Anyone interested in helping in youth group for grades 7-12 on Wednesday evenings should see Walker Reynolds.

If you are able to serve in nursery one service a month, please see Linda Bogoslawski.

CREED AND CONFESSION READING

1689 Baptist Confession (Chapter 29, paragraph 1): Baptism

Baptism is an ordinance of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ. To those baptized it is a sign of their fellowship with him in His death and resurrection, of their being grafted into Him, of remission of sins, and of submitting themselves to God through Jesus Christ to live and walk in newness of life.

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Romans 6:3-5
